In compliance with Federal regulations, I understand the following:

that a student loan is an obligation that I must repay in full even if I:

- * do not finish school
- * cannot get a job on completing or ending my studies
- * become dissatisfied with my school
- * do not receive the educational or other services I purchased that loan repayment begins

- * when I graduate, or
- * when I am no longer enrolled as a part-time student that failure to repay a student loan and default on a debt

- * will be reported to the credit bureaus
- * will be reported to any school I have attended, am attending, or will attend

AND

- * I may be sued
- * I will not be eligible for future Federal financial aid
- * I will not be eligible for future deferment privileges on student loans
- * my federal income tax refunds will be withheld
- * my wages will be garnished
- * I will be liable for all costs associated with the collection of my loan

In regard to the Law School's Refund/Return policies, I understand that if I register and then:

- ☛ drop a class or classes, my eligibility for aid will be RECALCULATED on the remaining units and I may be responsible for repaying a portion of any financial aid received.
- ☛ withdraw totally from all classes prior to the first class day, any and all awarded financial aid will be revoked.
- ☛ withdraw totally from all classes on or after the first class day, my aid award is subject to the Federal statutory calculation for earned aid and the Law School's Refund/Return policies as stated in the Student Handbook. I must contact my Financial Aid Counselor to understand how my withdrawal will affect my aid awards.

My signature below certifies that I have read and understand the above regulations, and that it is my responsibility to complete the online entrance counseling requirement by June 30, 2005. If I fail to complete the online entrance counseling, my loan funds will be withheld or be returned to the lender in accordance with the Federal regulations. I will be responsible for all fees and interests due on my account with the Law School.
