How to Search for the Schedule of Classes offered for a given term.

1. log into my.whittier.edu

2. Once Logged in, click on the “My Info” link.

4. Choose the term that you want to search for classes. Be sure to choose a term listed for the “Law School” to search for Law School Classes
5. Here you will enter the search criteria. At a minimum, you must at least choose a Subject. You can also search on title, instructor, days, times, or attributes. Enter the criteria of your choice and hit the button.

6. Here is a list of sections found that matches your criteria. It gives you all the information regarding the section including, time, day, instructor, final exam day, etc. To see more detailed information about the section, click on the “CRN” link.

7. This screen shows more information about the course. Certain Seminar and Limited Enrollment courses have the course descriptions stored in the Banner. To view the course description, click on the course title link.
How to Search for the Schedule of Classes offered for a given term.

8. To search for Seminar courses… Return to “Look Up Classes” and the search criteria screen and look under the attributes drop-down menu.

Here you can filter down your search by various attributes, one being “Seminar/Limited Enrollment Courses”. You can also filter your search by FTD, PTD, or PTE.

To search for limited enrollment courses, click on the attribute and hit the Class Search button.
How to Search for the Schedule of Classes offered for a given term.

9. Here you see all the results for Seminars or limited enrollment courses.