Professor Graeme Dinwoodie is the Chicago-Kent faculty three-time recipient of the Goldman Prize for Excellence in Teaching. He has also taught as a visiting professor at the University of Pennsylvania Law School. Prior to teaching, Professor Dinwoodie was an associate with Sullivan and Cromwell in New York, concentrating in the practice of intellectual property law and in commercial, corporate, and international litigation.

Professor Dinwoodie holds a First Class Honors LL.B. degree in Private Law from the University of Glasgow, an L.L.M. from Harvard Law School, and a J.S.D. from Columbia Law School. He is the author of the casebook International Intellectual Property Law and Policy (with Hennessey and Perlmutter) and his articles on various aspects of intellectual property law have appeared in several law reviews.

Center for Intellectual Property Law Distinguished Speaker:

Graeme Dinwoodie

Professor of Law, Associate Dean, Director of the Program in Intellectual Property Law, and Norman and Edna Freehling Scholar, Chicago-Kent College of Law

Thursday, April 8, 2004, 5:30 p.m.

Lecture with wine and hor d’oeuvres reception

Whittier Law School, Classroom 1

1 unit of MCLE credit is available for this program.*

Please RSVP by Wednesday, April 7 to Maria Harris in the Dean’s office, 714 444 4141 ext.111.

*This event has been certified for MCLE credit by the State Bar of California. Whittier Law School is a State Bar of California approved MCLE provider.