Obtaining your own IP is one part of the equation, but your competitors are also seeking strong IP. How can or should you act when you find that your competitor has been issued a problematic broad patent? Experienced in-house counsels will discuss possible strategies, with pros and cons of the options.

Whittier Law School’s Center for Intellectual Property Law and Birch, Stewart, Kolasch & Birch, LLP (Intellectual Property Law Firm)

Present the
Spring 2004 Intellectual Property Seminar Series

2nd Seminar:
Wednesday, March 31, 2004
8:00 a.m. - 9:00 a.m.
Whittier Law School, Classroom 5

Topic: What To Do When Your Competitor Gets a Broad Patent

Guest Speakers:

Jaconda Wagner, Esq., Patent Counsel, BD (Becton, Dickinson and Company)

David Hill, Esq., Patent Counsel, Beckman Coulter

Breakfast will be provided.

Please RSVP by Monday, March 29. The RSVP list is posted on Prof. David Welkowitz’s office door (Office # 213).