Greetings! Welcome to Whittier Law School and to your Contracts class.

The class syllabus for the first part of the semester is attached to this e-mail.

Your first Contracts reading assignment and related notes follow.

Book

You should buy the following book:

FARNSWORTH, SANGER, COHEN, BROOKS, & GARVIN, CONTRACTS: CASES AND MATERIALS (8th ed. 2013). This is your primary casebook.

This is the only book that is required for the class. You should not buy anything else.

Assignment for Class 1

Our first class is Monday, August 17, 2:00—3:25 p.m.

In preparation for your first class, please read following pages from your casebook: pp. 1–2, 8–9 (do not read Hawkins v. McGee).

In addition, please read the edited version of In the Matter of Baby M, which is attached to this e-mail.

Please also bring with you copies of the UCC sections that are attached to this e-mail (UCC § 2-102, 2-105(1)).

Please also read, very carefully, the policy section of the syllabus.

The students whose last names are between Ad—Ho are “on call,” but you should all read the materials carefully (see the syllabus for more details on reading policy and panels division).

Course Website

Please note that there is a class website on The West Education Network (TWEN). You should register for the course website as soon as you receive your Westlaw passwords. It contains the syllabus and supplement readings.

Choosing Seats

I will circulate a seating chart on the first day of class, and this should remain your seat for the entire semester.

I look forward to meeting you all during the orientation.
