

Torts II

Professor Leary

For our first week of classes in the Spring, (so, two classes), please read and prepare to discuss pages 172-193 in our textbook.

I'm looking forward to seeing you again and to continuing our study of the wonderful world of Torts.

Women and the Law

Professor Leary

For our first class, please read, think about, and prepare to discuss the following:

The title of our textbook
preface - pages xxxi-xxxii.
Chapter 1 pages 1-43

You will see that this textbook is unlike anything you have read in law school. So “preparing” is unlike any other law school preparation. You should read with thoughtfulness and curiosity and come to class with your thoughts and questions.

I look forward to seeing you and to our discussions next semester.
